DTU has 4 street food stalls. On the building square there is "The Turkish kitchen."

"Kemitorvet" (Chemistry square) is central for DTU's chemistry students, where lunch is typically eaten outdoors on warm days.

Building 202: Here you will find one of DTU's canteens in one of the newer buildings here at DTU.

"Matematiktorvet" (Mathematics Square) is located between buildings 301-306. Mathematics is an integral part of DTU and takes up a lot of space, here you will find the buildings where bachelor students study mathematics during the first year.

Bygning 342: Wicked Rabbit is DTU's completely vegetarian canteen. On Friday afternoons, the canteen is transformed into the Friday bar called "Hegnet".

Building 374: DTU SkyLab is DTU's entrepreneurial building, with prototype workshops, clubs and start-up support for students. In SkyLab you will also find a small canteen/café on the 1st floor.

We recommend that you start and finish your walk in building 101.

DTU's library is both a traditional and a digital library and it is one of the DTU's most visited study areas.

The canteen in building 101

S-huset: Here you will find DTU's student house. It forms the framework for cafés, bars, parties, exam reading etc.

Here you will find DTU's Study Guidance and other administrative offices here in Lyngby.

The Kampsax dorm is one of the 6 dorms located at DTU Lyngby.

In building 413 there is the 4th quadrant's Friday bar "Diamanten". There is one Friday bar in each of DTU's quadrants.

DTU has 4 street food stalls. Out in front of building 414 you will find "Yatai" which serves Japanese street food.

Nørgaard's garden offers frisbee golf and is part of the running route around DTU.
